

- Oral Medicine, Diagnosis, Radiology

Oral Medicine is the specialty that deals with the diagnosis and non surgical management of medically related diseases or conditions affecting the oral & maxillofacial region. Various radiological methods for diagnosing soft and hard tissue lesions in the oral & maxillofacial region is also carried out in this department.

The department offers teaching facilities for undergraduate:

- Diagnosis section with 20 dental chairs
- Dental Radiology Section with analog and digital x ray machines
- Maxillofacial Radiology section with conventional and digital panoramic X ray machines .
- Darkroom
- Seminar room
- Computer with internet facility,
- Department library.

The department is equipped to offer:

- Diagnosis of all orofacial conditions
- Diagnosis and management of various oral mucosal lesions
- Diagnosis and medical management of TMJ disorders
- Diagnosis and management of Orofacial Pain

All kinds of intraoral and extra oral radiographs with their interpretation.